

BRUMBY & WILDLIFE EXPEDITIONS

AUSTRALIAN BRUMBY RESEARCH UNIT

www.wildhorseresearch.com

to book a tour contact:

Brian Hampson
b.hampson@uq.edu.au

Magdalena Zabek
m.zabek@uq.edu.au

SCIENCE & OUTBACK TOUR (5 or 7 days)

Wild horse watching at the waterholes and from 4WD, while touring through the desert

Wild horse trapping and assistance with research

Aboriginal cultural sites & tour guides

Outback camping & wildlife

Brumby foot school on request

www.wildhorersearch.com

BRUMBY FOOT TOUR (5 days)

Study of Brumby foot in its natural environment

In-depth analysis of the brumby foot including feet dissection

Daily lectures

Wild horse observation while touring through the desert

www.wildhorersearch.com

FULL OUTBACK TOUR (14 days)

Travel to the desert in central Australia via the most spectacular destinations: Great Keppel Island/Fraser Island, Longreach, Kakadu, Darwin

5 days in the desert following the program of "Science & Outback Tour"

Coastal and outback wildlife

4WD adventure

www.wildhorseresearch.com

CROSSING THE DESERT ON HORSE BACK

Wild horse watching, trapping and daily horse handling clinics

Cross the desert on horse back for 5 days (4WD backup)

Camping in swags in the desert

Aboriginal tour guides

Outback wildlife (camels, dingoes, kangaroos)

www.wildhorseresearch.com

AUSTRALIAN BRUMBY RESEARCH UNIT

Team of researchers and passionate about wild horses

Their work encompasses research on Australian wild horses - to improve domestic horse feet, laminitis research and the behavioural ecology of horses

International speakers, documentary film makers and professional photographers

Nature and wildlife enthusiasts
NOW - they want to share their knowledge with you!!!

Design and photographs: Magdalena Zabek

last photo: Mia Guldhov